Dear Parent/Guardian

Re: Industrial Action for Friday 13th March 2015

You will probably be aware that there will be considerable disruption to public services tomorrow (Friday 13th March) as a result of planned industrial action. Fortunately, this action will have limited impact on our school as our teaching, non-teaching and canteen staff will not be striking. Therefore, Newtownhamilton High will be open on Friday and will provide a normal education for pupils with the Year 12 GCSE English Exam (Speaking & Listening) proceeding as arranged in the afternoon.

Unfortunately, the industrial action will have an impact on some of our SELB bus routes and at the time of going to print, I have been informed that there will no service for both the Keady and Altnamackin routes. The Whitecross and Drumhillery service will run as normal. Any further updates will be communicated via our website and facebook page.

I am therefore requesting that parents of pupils who travel on the Keady and Altnamackin buses, make every effort to ensure that their child is transported to and from school on this one off occasion. You may decide to share lifts with family, friends or neighbours.

Finally, please remember that the school will be closed on Monday 16th and Tuesday 17th March.

Yours sincerely

Neil Megaw
